

NOTICE to United States citizens and legal United States residents residing outside of the United States.

US Federal law prohibits enrolling in a Medicare Advantage plan if you reside outside of the United States (i.e.- the plan service area). See US Federal regulation §422.50 Eligibility to elect a Medicare Advantage plan.

You should obtain local health care coverage from an insurance company in the country you are residing in.

If you plan to move outside of the United States, you must dis-enroll from the Medicare Advantage plan you are currently enrolled in.

If someone approaches you to enroll in a Medicare Advantage plan while residing outside of the United States decline to do so and notify your nearest United States consular office.
